This image shows the completed LEGO Technic model of a 2x2 square. The structure is built on a black base plate. The top and bottom edges are reinforced with grey Technic beams. The interior is filled with a grid of black Technic bricks. The corners are reinforced with grey Technic bricks. The model is shown from an isometric perspective, highlighting the internal structure and the use of various colored bricks and connectors.
